

Conference

August 1 - August 2, 2006

Extreme Events

What Leaders Need to Know

Speakers:

Ivan Walks, M.D.

Former Director, Public Health Commission, Washington, D.C.

Louis Rowitz, Ph.D.

Director, Mid-America Regional Public Health Leadership Institute, Author of Public Health for the 21st Century: The Prepared Leader

Joseph Henderson, M.A.

Senior CDC Official, New York State Department of Health

Program Description:

The Northeast Regional Public Health Leadership Institute (NEPHLI) in collaboration with the University at Albany Center for Public Health Preparedness, invites you to join us to improve your crisis leadership skills.

Topics Include:

- Race, Class and Disasters
- Crisis Leadership Skills and Competencies
- Minimizing Chaos

Pre-registration required. Continental breakfast and lunch will be provided. There is no charge for this program.

Who Should Attend:

Emergency Preparedness and Bioterrorism Coordinators from State and County Public Health Departments, Community Health Centers and Hospitals. Open to all.

When:

August 1 - August 2, 2006

Aug 1: 8 AM - 5:15 PM

Aug 2: 8 AM - 3:30 PM

Learn more and register at:

www.ualbany.php.org or phone 518-486-7921

Local site:

University at Albany School of Public Health, George Education Center Auditorium, University at Albany East Campus, Routes 9 & 20 (near Interstate 787 & downtown Albany).

New York Consortium for Emergency Preparedness Continuing Education

www.nycepcce.org

Sponsored by: The New York Consortium for Emergency Preparedness Continuing Education, with support from the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) Bioterrorism Training and Curriculum Development Program, award 2 T01HP01411-03-00. The contents of this program are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of HRSA.