

Mass Evacuation to Rural Communities

Thursday, November 9, 2006

Brian Gerber, PhD - Assistant Professor,
Division of Public Administration, School of Applied
Social Sciences, West Virginia University

Donald W. Rowe, PhD - Public Health Liaison, School of Public Health and Health Professions,
University at Buffalo

The presenters will share results of a recent survey regarding potential behavioral responses of large populations to disaster events - including terrorist attacks - and will discuss key concerns for rural communities to consider as they plan for mass exodus from urban centers. They will also share new efforts underway by the recently funded Advanced Practice Center in western New York.
